

Cliffs on southeast side

The cliffs of Nomans Land Island provide an attraction for the raptors that visit the island as they migrate south each fall. Vantage points of over 100 feet high help raptors successfully hunt prey and swallows that nest in the cliffs provide an important food resource. Staff commonly observe peregrine falcons, kestrels, Coopers hawks, northern harriers and many others.